FATSO[®]

A SUPER STRENGTH FLOOR CLEANER MADE BY AND FOR THE PROFESSIONALS

Our super strength floor cleaner is tailored to the exacting requirements of the food processing industry. Fast-food restaurants, packers and processors, meat departments and bakeries have found Wayne Fatso superior in strength and less costly to use than any competitive product. It's highly alkaline and free rinsing. It penetrates, lifts and suspends animal fats, cooking oils and related soils from hard surfaces faster than anything you've tried.

IT'S VERSATILE: Works well in hard or soft, warm or cool water, steam cleaners, scrubbers, pressure washers and soak tanks.

AND IT'S ECONOMICAL: Because high concentration allows in-use dilution of up to 1:32 (4 oz. per gallon). Cool water saves heating energy and emulsification saves labor.

EFFECTIVE, ECONOMICAL USE: When possible, dispense with a preset measuring device. A Wayne drum proportioner is the perfect answer. Fatso is so concentrated that it can be diluted and still handle the heaviest soil. Manual mixing is a good guess at best and is usually wasteful. Our proportioner delivers the right mix everytime.

In areas of heavy soil, apply with a pressure sprayer with nozzle adjusted to a coarse spray. Fatso is so effective that even ground-in soil floats loose in seconds. This heavy concentration of soil will quickly contaminate a mop bucket filled with cleaning solution. By spraying the solution on, mopping and then wringing into a bucket you can keep you unused solution clean and cut floor maintenance cost.

RECOMMENDED AREAS FOR USE: Fast food stores, caterers, cafeterias, restaurants, bakeries, bottling companies, canneries, breweries, poultry processing plants, cheese and milk producers, cereal manufacturers, slaughterhouses, smokehouses, butcher shops, meat packers, fish processing centers, supermarkets, wholesale grocers, refrigerated trucks and canteen companies.
